

Hey Saint John – here’s your chance to be in a Music Video!

July 18, 2008
For Immediate Release
Saint John, NB

On Wednesday, July 23rd Enterprise Saint John and a well-known recording artist will announce details of a music video that will be shot in and prominently feature the Saint John Community!

“This is such a unique, incredibly exciting opportunity for our region!” says Mayor Ivan Court. “This is our chance to show the world that Saint John is the place to be – a beautiful place where there is opportunity and you can live life on your terms. And because our residents will have a chance to participate in the video it’s also a great way to build community pride and have a lot of fun together!”

All media and the public are invited to join us in the lobby of the Imperial Theatre at 10:00am on Wednesday, July 23rd, to learn the details of the project (including filming schedule) and how area residents can be part of this one-of-a-kind event.
